

Developing a Healthy, Universal, Cost-Shared School Food Program for Canada

A successful Canada-wide School Food Program will be:

Health-Promoting

Serve tasty, nourishing and culturally appropriate whole foods, focusing on vegetables and fruits. Ensure that programs are in line with the revised Canada's Food Guide and that they foster a healthy food environment where students can develop a positive relationship with food.

Universal

Ensure that ALL children in a school can access the program in a non-stigmatizing manner. Over time, all children in Canada will be able to participate in a school food program.

Cost-shared

Use federal funding to both expand on current provincial, city, parental and community funding and to initiate new programs in a cost-shared model.

Flexible and Locally Adapted

Successful school food programs reflect and respect the local context of the school and region and are connected to their local communities. Ensure that funding builds on existing programs, local knowledge, skills and relationships and that it supports different food service models, from breakfast to lunch to snacks.

Committed to Indigenous Control over Programs for Indigenous Students

Embed Indigenous Food Sovereignty in a School Food Program for Canada and negotiate funding for school food programs with Indigenous Nations and leaders.

A Driver of Community Economic Development

Encourage school food programs to set local and sustainably produced food purchasing targets, which would create jobs for Canadian farmers and local food producers.

Promoting of Food Literacy

Support the conditions for school food programs to be integrated into the curriculum and enable food literacy and experiential food skills education.

Supported by Guidance and Accountability Measures

Ensure that programs are guided by Canada-wide nutritional standards, conflict of interest safeguards that prevent programs from marketing unhealthy food and specific products, as well as a framework for consistent Canada-wide program evaluation.
